Brinkley's is already off to a great start for 2011

Brinkley's Estate Agents, today reported that despite the economic doom, gloom and dreary weather, its personnel are reporting a New Year rush.

Robert Brinkley, MD of Brinkley's Estate Agents, said that, "Although there is more of a hint of economic doom, gloom in the air, coupled with equally dreary weather, our negotiators and sales personnel are in buoyant mood, reporting a New Year rush for properties."

He told us that both sales and lettings were providing a great start to the year, adding "It would seem that the old adage: New Year, New start, is working well for us".
