Wimbledon Estate agents, Brinkley's continues big push.

As January comes to an end, Brinkley's Estate Agents, which has branches in Putney, Wimbledon Hill and Wimbledon Park, continues the big push to obtain even more sales and rental properties in SW London.

The impressive start to 2011 is set to continue into February, so, the company is on the offensive to build up its portfolio.

"The upward trend that marked the very beginning of the year was great for us", said Brinkley's, CEO, Robert Brinkley. "And going into February, rental and sales properties are not staying on the books for long, so we're on a mission to satisfy the demand that is showing no signs of slowing".
