Brinkley's increases efforts.

Following a great start to the year, Brinkley's Estate Agents is on a mission to obtain even more sales and rental properties.

Like some other agents in the area and those that took place in the NAEA survey, Brinkley's has had an unexpected but impressive start to 2011. So, the company is on the offensive to build up its portfolio.

"The upward trend that marked the very beginning of the year is great for us", said Brinkley's, CEO, Robert Brinkley. "Rental and sales properties are not staying on the books for long, so we're on a mission to satisfy the demand that, fingers crossed, is showing no signs of slowing".
