Wimbledon estate agents, Brinkley's says sales are on the up.

Brinkley's Estate Agents, which has branches in Putney, Wimbledon Hill and Wimbledon Park, is experiencing an upturn in property sales.

As spring approaches and the weather shows signs of improvement, it would seem that people are turning their thoughts to moving house.

Robert Brinkley, CEO of Brinkley's Estate Agents said, "We are seeing an increase in people wanting to buy and sell properties in the SW London area. Our Putney office, in particular, has seen a substantial increase in new instructions and this is happening at our other offices, too."
