

Wimbledon estate agents, Brinkley's says Spring is in the air.

Brinkley's Estate Agents, which has branches in Putney, Wimbledon Hill and Wimbledon Park, is agrees with the recent findings of the NAEA.

According to The National Association of Estate Agent's (NAEA) market report for February, there has been a year-on-year rise of 25 per cent in the level of houses for sale. Furthermore, the number of house-hunters has risen to the highest level for seven months.

Robert Brinkley, CEO of Brinkley's Estate Agents said, "The signs of growth are still in the early stages and the regional fluctuations remain. Luckily, SW London is and has been relatively stable and we have seen the number of vendors and buyers increase, this year".

ENDS